Make Good Things Happen
For 35 years, the Chautauqua Region Community Foundation has been a supporter of local nonprofit organizations by providing financial assistance through our extensive fund base. While we have many funds whose awards have a designated purpose, our most coveted funds are those with no designation at all. Through the years, this money has been called unrestricted, community service, special projects and most recently the Fund for the Region. We have learned that whatever one chooses to call it, these donations fall into the category of caring and giving.

An individual must care for his or her community to give a donation without designation. It is that sense of caring that gives our Board of Directors full authority to direct this money to projects and initiatives that will better our community for future generations.

As we embark on the “Road to 35,” we look at these types of donations to lay the pavement for our success. This proverbial road takes us through the communities of Randolph, Clymer, Mayville, Falconer and others around the region, to make good things happen.

We may not know what the next 35 years hold, but, by following in the footsteps of the founders, donors, Board of Directors and volunteers who have come before us, we can be sure that the Community Foundation will remain a place where caring and giving prevail…

Board of Directors
“This team of Founders began the initial strategy of focusing on growing unrestricted endowment assets which are needed to address emerging, community issues.”

— Kenneth Strickler
President Board of Directors 1978-1987

Thirty-five years later we pay tribute to these beliefs through the promotion of the most coveted of all our resources — unrestricted endowment assets or the Fund for the Region.
In November, Clymer Central School dedicated a wall of honor to all American military veterans from the Clymer, French Creek and Mina communities. So far, the wall boasts 1,083 names of individuals representing conflicts since World War II. All proceeds for this wall came from community members and were held in the Clymer Central School Veterans Honor Roll Non-Endowed Fund.

The Town of North Harmony is looking to renovate Veterans Park in Ashville. Ralph Whitney gathered with Ron Saxton and Frank Stowe to discuss plans for the future memorial with Randy Sweeney and Sally Carlson. Town Board Members are asking residents, past and present, who have served in the military, to submit their names to the Town Clerk’s Office for inclusion on the memorial. Donations may be made to the Town of North Harmony Veterans Memorial Non-Endowed Fund.

Randy Sweeney presents a check to Mary Ann Spanos and County Executive Greg Edwards for the Office for the Aging/Veterans Agency. In 2012, the Chautauqua County Assistance Fund awarded a total of $95,000 to support emergency home repairs for veterans and veterans’ families. Some of the completed projects include wheelchair ramps, roof repairs and new windows.
Caring for their future. Giving them a helping hand.

Haley Kulakowski, a 2012 Jamestown High School graduate, received the Alison Ney and Christa Stineman Memorial Scholarship to study International Relations at Syracuse University. Also pictured are Alison and Christa’s parents; Dr. Lillian Ney, Mary Stineman and Richard Stineman.

Christopher Proctor received his associate degree in applied science in May 2012. SEABEE Roland Swanson, right, presents Christopher the first Island X-11 N.Y. Navy SEABEES/John Oleszak Memorial Scholarship to further his education at Pennsylvania College of Technology.

Alex Beckerink, currently a sophomore at Southwestern High School, received the Lucile M. Wright Air Museum Scholarship to attend a five-day long space camp at the U.S. Space and Rocket Center in Huntsville, Alabama. A Civil Air Patrol member, Alex’s dream is to someday work for NASA. Alex poses with his mom, Lisa Beckerink, and Richard Fessenden, President of the Lucile M. Wright Air Museum.
Over the past six years, more than 350 trees have been planted throughout the city of Jamestown’s school neighborhoods. In May, students at Lincoln Elementary collected $281.66, in change, to put towards planting five new trees along the school’s front entrance. Students were inspired to do something for the environment after reading Dr. Seuss’ “The Lorax.” The Community Foundation matched the school’s donation.

The Chautauqua County Assistance Fund granted $10,000 to the American Red Cross, Southwestern New York Chapter, in July to benefit disaster relief services. Executive Director of the Red Cross, Bill Tucker, and Randy Sweeney stack cleaning buckets that are distributed to flood victims. In 2011, the Red Cross responded to over 50 incidents throughout Chautauqua County and assisted over 200 individuals. Their services are free of charge and only possible through the generosity of the public and other nonprofit organizations.

At the end of 2012, $470,010.27 was awarded to 93 churches and charitable agencies throughout the Chautauqua Region from designated/agency funds. These are funds that have been established for a specific purpose or organization.

A total of $1,993,380 has been given back to the community, through all fund types, to support religious, educational, arts and humanities, youth, and human service projects and initiatives.

In July, the Veterans Commission hosted a beautiful ceremony, relocating Veterans Park from the East Side of Jamestown, in front of Jamestown High School, to Third Street, near Logan and Harding Avenues. The event was attended by local veterans, current military personnel, local government officials and members of the community.

The Veterans Commission’s plan for Veterans Park has been laid out into four phases. The installation of an American-made flagpole was phase one. The Commission will now focus their efforts on raising money to install a base for the Civil War cannon as well as a walkway to guide visitors around the memorial. Future plans include planting flowers and trees around the site as well as installing a monument to represent the various branches of the Armed Forces of the United States and the conflicts in which they served. All money associated with this fund is being held in the Veterans Memorial Commission Relocation Fund.
The colorful leaves, crisp cool air and smell of apples make many in the Chautauqua Region prepare themselves for the fall season. One of the “can’t miss” festivals in the area during this time is the Busti Apple Festival.

For 38 years, attendants of the festival have had the opportunity to listen to music, browse handmade crafts and sample some of the best delicacies from the area. Thanks to the hard work and dedication of the Busti Historical Society, visitors this year had the opportunity to tour the Busti Grist Mill.

The Mill, which was built in 1838, was responsible for producing flour and animal grist. The Busti Historical Society was given the Mill in 1972 and since then has been raising money through craft festivals, which eventually turned into the Busti Apple Festival, to renovate the Mill’s structure and nearby buildings.

This past September, visitors were able to see the progress of some of the original milling machinery which has been restored. It is the hope of the Historical Society that one day, the mill will run like it did more than 100 years ago.

While proceeds from the Apple Festival support the Historical Society’s efforts, donations can be made to the Community Foundation for the Busti Historical Society and Grist Mill Fund as well.

A community has come together once again, this time to establish a fund that will benefit residents of the Falconer Region for generations to come.

The Falconer Region Community Fund will support a wide variety of charitable projects or needs associated with nonprofit organizations, churches or public entities located in the Falconer Central School District.

In addition to residents from Ellington, Falconer and Kennedy, Maurice Roach, a lifelong Falconer resident and owner of Falconer Printing and Design, has been a driving force in the establishment of this fund.

An active participant in many community-based programs, Mr. Roach noticed a lack of younger generations becoming involved in these types of organizations. He is hopeful this fund will provide the necessary financial support that organizations such as the Lion’s Club, Rotary Club and Kiwanis Club provide, if ever they are unable to do so.

4-H ENDOWMENT FUND

Helping nearly 500 youth aged 5-19 learn life lessons, responsibility and other skills, the Chautauqua County 4-H Youth Development Program was once fully funded through the Chautauqua County Legislature.

Unfortunately, funding was slowly cut until 2012 when funding was slashed entirely. Forced to remove special programming and educational career trips, Issue Leader Emily Kidd approached the Community Foundation about establishing an endowment fund. With a goal of raising $2 million in five years, 4-H would be able to support itself and focus on providing full educational benefits for its members.

One of the largest youth programs in the County, 4-H allows all members the opportunity to explore their interests and hone the skills necessary to become competent, caring and capable adults. In addition to receiving higher test scores, studies have shown that 4-H’ers are 25% more likely to contribute to their communities and are 41% less likely to engage in risk/problem behavior.

The Lesch Family of Cassadaga, is one of many multigenerational 4-H families. David Lesch’s mother, Henrietta, established the Canadaway 4-H Club in 1937. The family donated $5,000 to the endowment fund in honor of Henrietta.

Nina Karbacka works with students young and old as part of an intergenerational Suzuki strings program at the Warner Place Adult Day Health Care Program of Lutheran. natural born leader, Robert Van Every served his fellow man, his country and his community. After graduating from Falconer High School in 1942, he briefly attended Alfred University before enlisting in the United States Army.

During his military career, Mr. Van Every became an officer and navigator for the 456th bomb group and worked closely with the Air Force in Italy during World War II. He received three Oak Leaf Clusters, the E.A.M.E. European Ribbon and eight stars during his service.

Upon returning to Falconer he married his wife Katherine and purchased Weeden Hardware Store, changed the name to Falconer Hardware and became a successful businessman. He was elected mayor of Falconer in 1962 and served for four years.

Mrs. Van Every, also a Falconer High School graduate, attended Jamestown Business School and worked at the Art Metal Corp. until she married. After they purchased the hardware store, Mrs. Van Every went from being a homemaker to a true business partner handling customer accounts, advertising and organization as the store needed. She even served as president of the Falconer Business Association.

Together, Mr. and Mrs. Van Every were dedicated members of the Falconer United Methodist Church.

Following Mr. Van Every's death in May, his children established the Robert and Katherine Van Every Falconer High School Scholarship Fund to assist graduating seniors who demonstrate the ability to work hard for their future, despite the obstacles life throws at them.

Mrs. Van Every passed away in February 2013.

The town of Gerry celebrated their bicentennial in August with a parade, picnic and visits with historical figures from the community’s past. The Community Foundation helped sponsor the event in memory of Temple Atwell, a lifelong Gerry resident. Mrs. Atwell passed away in 2011 after a courageous battle with cancer.
A number of grants designated to help the community worked to provide hearing services to hundreds of people in Chautauqua County. Anne Hedin, audiologist, demonstrates the use of a microprocessor-controlled, two-channel audiometer for use in the clinical/diagnostic environment.
Lillian Dickson Park, located on the corner of Falconer and Bowen Streets in the city of Jamestown, has been given new life. A committee comprised of community members and city officials, calling themselves the Friends of Lillian Dickson Park, spent the summer months working with the Parks Department to remove old trees and unsafe playground equipment. Grills and benches were installed for families to enjoy warm and sunny days. The park was also a part of Hands on Jamestown Community Cleanup Day in which volunteers trimmed trees, pulled weeds, repainted the pavilion and coordinated a clean-up of the neighborhood surrounding the park.

In an effort to keep the park safe and family friendly, various events were planned for the summer including a National Night Out during August where community members enjoyed food, games, music and lively game of kickball. The event was all ages and attended by local city leaders, Jamestown police and firefighters.

The Lillian Dickson Park Non-Endowed Fund will serve as a depository for money donated to support the Friends’ initiatives to keep the park safe and family friendly. Future plans for the park include more community events and replacing playground equipment.
The Humane Society offered reduced pet adoption fees for those looking to add a furry friend to their homes.

This seal confirms compliance with all standards and policies for U.S. Community Foundations.
On May 22, 2013, the Chautauqua Region Community Foundation, and the community as a whole, lost a beloved teacher, extraordinary community member and dear friend after the passing of Katherine K. Burch.

A Chautauqua County native, Ms. Burch graduated from the State University of New York at Fredonia and Saint Bonaventure University. For 34 years, she served the Jamestown Public Schools as both a teacher and a principal.

Although Ms. Burch retired in 1992, she remained active in her community. At the Community Foundation, she served on a number of grants and scholarship committees and was elected to the Board of Directors in 1994. During her 10 year term, Ms. Burch served as Secretary to the Board of Directors, Chair of the General Scholarship II Committee, Chair of the Personnel Committee, Chair of the Wilde Scholarship Committee, Member of the Budget Committee and Member of the Education Committee.

Most recently, Ms. Burch served as Co-Chair of the Caring and Giving Campaign, a campaign designed to celebrate the 35th anniversary of the Community Foundation.

Ms. Burch will be greatly missed, but her profound impact and wonderful spirit will never be forgotten.
