ENRICHING THE QUALITY OF LIFE
IN THE CHAUTAUQUA REGION

2018 ANNUAL REPORT
40 YEARS of MAKING CONNECTIONS

Chautauqua Region
COMMUNITY FOUNDATION
ENRICHING THE QUALITY OF LIFE IN THE CHAUTAUQUA REGION
When Eugene Struckoff, a national expert on community foundations, visited the Chautauqua region in 1978, he met with a group of men and women with a common desire - to do good in their community.

For 40 years, the Chautauqua Region Community Foundation has made that desire a reality by connecting donors to causes they care about, students to educational opportunities and those in need to services and programs that can change lives.

What started as a connection between a small group of citizens has grown into thousands of connections that makes the Community Foundation what it is today – a trusted partner of community members who want to enrich the quality of life in the Chautauqua region.

THANK YOU for connecting with the Community Foundation. Your support allows us to make a difference for future generations.

On June 14, our community came together in a BIG way

Hosted by the Community Foundation, Give Big CHQ was the region's FIRST 24-hour online fundraising event. Each nonprofit organization created a unique fundraising page and campaign to spread their message through email and fun, creative social media posts.

All of the money raised went directly to the organization to continue their good work in our community.

2018 Jamestown High School A Cappella Choir directed by Norm Lydell

1934 Jamestown High School A Cappella Choir with Ebba Goranson
For Susan (Hegstedt) Erickson, memories of her father singing inspired her to connect with a special cause he cared about.

A member of the Jamestown High School Class of 1934, Edwin Hegstedt desperately wanted to be a member of Ebba Goranson’s A Cappella Choir. At the time, it was a requirement for all young men in the Choir to own a white dress shirt and black slacks, two items Edwin did not have and could not afford to buy.

Although he was never able to achieve his dream of joining the A Cappella Choir at the high school, Edwin never gave up his passion for singing. For years, Susan watched her father sing, at church, in the community, with the neighbors, and eventually with his grandchildren and great-grandchildren. The retired founder and president of EMCO Finishing Products, Inc., came a long way from the young man growing up during the Great Depression and looked for ways to give back to his community.

After his wife, Katherine, passed away in 1989, Edwin set up a meeting with Fred Larson, a local attorney specializing in estate planning. “I wanted to understand Ed’s desire to make a significant charitable gift as part of his plan,” Fred said. “He opened up to me and told me the story (about the A Cappella Choir) and how he never wanted another young person at JHS to be unable to be in the Choir, or any music program, because of a lack of money.”

After several meetings, Fred and Edwin drafted language for the Edwin J. and Katherine M. Hegstedt Memorial Fund, a donor advised fund whose proceeds would be directed by each year, Susan and her daughter, Amy.

Since Edwin's passing in 2001, the two generations of women work together to decide how their family’s fund should be spent. Each year, they reminisce about Edwin and Katherine and the organizations that meant, and would mean, the most to them.

In recent years, grants have been awarded to St. Susan Center, Bemus Point United Methodist Church for Royal Family Kids Camp, Salvation Army, Meals on Wheels of Jamestown, and most importantly, the Jamestown High School Music Department.
Robert Miller, Class of 1948
After graduating near the top of his class at the newly merged Lakewood and Celoron High Schools, Robert earned a BS in Accounting and his MBA from the University at Buffalo. In 1954, he was drafted by the U.S. Army and served with the Audit Agency. Following his service, he earned his CPA and spent the next 30 years working for the New York State Department of Finance and the Department of Transportation.

In 1987, he established a scholarship in honor of his father.

W. Peter Peterson, Class of 1955
The first recipient in the new Southwestern Central School building, Peter earned degrees at Allegheny College and Harvard Medical School.

Despite having lived out of the area for most of his adult life, he established a scholarship in his name to support graduating Southwestern seniors who demonstrate good citizenship.
In the 1920s, members of the Lakewood Parent Teacher Association came together under the direction of its president, Lucy Jackson Gardner, to create a scholarship fund to benefit their high school’s top students.

The PTA made and sold orange marmalade, jellies and jams and raised $1,400 for the scholarship. In 1925, it made its first award to Leslie Wilcox for $100.

In spite of school mergers, the Great Depression and times of war, the endowment grew. Over the next several decades, it awarded hundreds of dollars each year to one member of the senior class.

Several of the students who received this scholarship to support the next steps on their educational journey are pictured below.

After 93 years of administering the Lakewood PTA Scholarship to Southwestern students, the school transferred its assets to the Community Foundation in 2018.

Stacey (Boltz) Palasek, Class of 1996
Stacey earned multiple degrees from the University of Richmond in 2000 and earned a Master’s Degree in analytical chemistry from the University of Georgia in 2003.

She was working as a research chemist in North Carolina when she unexpectedly passed away in 2006. Her family established a scholarship in her memory to benefit female Southwestern graduating seniors, majoring in science at a four-year college or university.

At the Foundation, this scholarship will continue to connect generations of students to the Lakewood PTA’s vision, that a quality education is for everyone.

Hannah Finson, Class of 2018
A National Merit Scholar, Hannah was valedictorian of her class, senior class president and president of the National Honor Society. In addition to academics, Hannah is also a gifted musician, playing both the trumpet and harp. In 2017, she was named the Chautauqua Area Scholarship Program winner. Hannah is currently a sophomore at Liberty University, majoring in biochemistry and molecular biology, and hopes to become an eye surgeon.
Main Street in Sherman during the 1950s
For over 100 years, the Sherman Department Store offered residents and visitors a local place to purchase goods, share conversations and conduct business.

For two men, the store did something even greater, it connected their families, in more ways than one.

In 1910, Sam Wake established a general store on Main Street in Sherman and employed his son, Harry, as its manager. After two years as manager, Harry took over complete control of the store and became a driving force in the Sherman community. During the Great Depression, when the Bank of Sherman failed, residents say that Harry ran a banking business out of his store to make loans to farmers, ensuring their livelihood could continue.

In 1951, Harry retired and sold his business to Otto Gratzer, a former Sherman resident who had recently moved back to the village with his wife and two daughters.

Like Harry, Otto was a devoted family man and volunteered his time to many community organizations.

He and Harry became close friends, blending their families, sharing stories about business, and setting an example for their children on what being a part of a community is all about.

In 2012, Otto’s family established The Gratzer-Wiggers-Hanson Good Citizenship Award, which is awarded annually to a graduating Sherman Central School senior who is well rounded, patriotic, demonstrates consideration and thoughtfulness of others, and has made the most of their high school years.

In 2018, Harry’s son, Harold, and grandson, George, established The Harry Harold Wake, Harold Edmunds Wake and George Harold Wake Endowed Scholarship Fund, which will be awarded annually to the Sherman Central School valedictorian.

Although the students receiving these awards may not realize the scope of what Harry and Otto accomplished in their lives, they will continue to be examples of the legacy left behind by two men whose vision and dedication shaped their community.
The Chautauqua Region Community Foundation Legacy Society honors and recognizes the philanthropic leadership and vision of individuals who have chosen to leave a gift to the Foundation through an estate-planning vehicle. Enrollment in this honorary society is simply a matter of advising the Foundation of the creation of a bequest. Too often, these gifts are unrecognized because they come at the end of a donor’s life.

CRCF Legacy Society Members  These members are lovingly remembered for their generosity

The Chautauqua Region Community Foundation’s auditing firm is Saxton, Kocur and Associates, LLP. The basis for this information is the audited financial statements, which can be inspected at the Foundation office or by visiting crcfonline.org.

Throughout its 40-year history, the Foundation has received contributions of $77.2 million and granted to the community over $55.9 million.

The Foundation administers nearly 750 funds.
The Chautauqua Region Community Foundation presented its annual Community Service Award to Thomas Erlanson during a celebration at the Chautauqua Harbor Hotel on October 12.

A graduate of Jamestown High School and Jamestown Community College, Thomas earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Biology from Franklin and Marshall College in Lancaster, Pa. and went on to earn his Master of Science in Entomology and PhD. in Zoology from University of Wisconsin.

During my years as a member of the Jamestown Community College faculty, I had the pleasure of meeting John Hamilton and interacting with him on several occasions,” Thomas said. “(John) set the standard for community service and I am greatly honored to be this year’s recipient of the award named for him.”

For 27 years, Thomas taught a variety of biology and geology courses at Jamestown Community College. Over the past several decades, he has volunteered his time to many environmental and water quality organizations, most recently the Chautauqua Lake Partnership.
During a reception on July 9 at St. Mary of Lourdes Parish, Ann Walsh was presented the 2018 Axel W. Carlson “Unsung Hero” Award.

For over 40 years, Ann has dedicated her time to helping others throughout the Mayville community.

“"My volunteering began from a church group that was started from St. Mary’s,” she explained. “Every week we were given three names of people that we could visit in the nursing home. It was wonderful to see how happy the people were when they realized we came just to see them.”

Today, as a mother, grandmother and great-grandmother, Ann spends her time volunteering with St. Paul’s Church Thrift Shop, Mayville Food Pantry, St. Vincent Society and St. Mary of Lourdes Parish.

According to Judy Parker, who nominated Ann for this award, she is the embodiment of community service in action. “(Ann) has built a legacy of faith in loving and caring for others, through her example of selfless community service that will live on for generations to come,” Judy said.

To celebrate the holiday season, throughout the month of November, the Foundation asked people to use #GiveThanks to share why they were thankful for a charitable organization in our community. Nearly 600 submissions were received for more than 50 organizations.

On Giving Tuesday, the Foundation randomly selected five of those organizations to receive $1,000 each.
