

Kathy Kardish Wilson Memorial Educational Fund Application Deadline – June 1, 2022

Kathy Kardish Wilson was a beloved wife and mother who worked full-time as an office administrator. She was a frequent volunteer at her church and especially enjoyed teaching Sunday School to the church youth. Kathy was also one of the busiest members of her sorority chapter, volunteering for an extraordinary number of projects.

At the time of her death in 1988, Kathy was working toward earning her degree in teaching. Her family, friends and sorority sisters created this scholarship to support those who embodied Kathy's ideals.

Criteria: Applicants must be residents of New York, Pennsylvania or Ohio. They should be mothers of school aged children and part of a two-income household, where tuition would be a burden on the family. Applicants should also be community minded and involved in at least one community organization.

A complete application will include the following:

1. This form
2. A copy of your most recent transcript
3. A typed, one-page essay that describes:
 - Your past achievements
 - Career goals
 - Reasons for returning to school or training
 - Additional information that illustrates how you embody Kathy's ideals

All materials must be submitted to the Chautauqua Region Community Foundation no later than June 1, 2022.
